SENIORS DO IT BEST

Coming to school late seems to be the fashion this year. We try our hardest to get out of bed early so we can be on time, but we never can.

After we drive into the parking lot at 60 mph, we jump out of the car running toward the building and hear the tardy bell ring. Most would worry about having to face Mr. Yates, but when Melissa Lary, Senior, was asked about being late, she replied, "I'm never late!" She must have her stuff together.

For those of us who are not as fortunate as Melissa, we can only try harder next time. We could get the old book of excuses out and try a few on our teacher or the principal. For example, we could tell our teacher that we were trying to hurry and get to our car and we fell in a puddle of mud. We could also use the oldie but goodie, "Mom didn't get me out of the bed in time."

It seems being late is a problem everyone faces. In trying to find a solution for this problem, we can only make sure the snooze button does not get pushed too many times.

Trying to stay awake is hard to do in Mrs. Thedford's 6th hour class for Kelly Bryant, Troy Bonin, and Kim McCann, Srs.

Playing the drums, Robert Wagers, Sr., performs at a pep rally.

Angi McCann, Sr., joined by her parents, participates in the 1987-88 Homecoming ceremonies.

Catching a few zzz's Autumn Cole, Sr., rests at lunch.

Chuck Arnold, captain of the football team, presents roses to the 1987-88 Homecoming Queen, Charlotte Oates, both Srs.

Kim Dryden and Sandy Cornwell help Frances Decuir find feathers for senior portraits. All of them are Srs.

Jodi McCann, Sr., participates in the 1987-88 Pep Squad, where she serves as Co-Captain.

She placed first in Algebra II and World History, second in English II and English III, and fifth in Algebra I. Melissa went to State Literary Rally in English III and World History. Andy had a GPA of 3.4. During his high school career, he also participated in District Literary Rally. He competed in General Business, English I, French I, Physics, and Trigonometry. Melissa and Andy were two examples of high achieving students at Buckeye High School.

The senior year is the most important year of one's high school career. It prepares a person for the "real world". Melissa Lary and Troy Bonin were two seniors who succeeded and excelled in many areas including college prep courses. These courses are available to those who are willing to put forth extra effort to better prepare themselves for the coming years of their lives. Many attributes are needed for a successful career, including intelligence and friendliness. Melissa and Troy excelled in each of these areas. We wish them luck as they go into the world and hope they will remember us when they make their first million!

Most Intellectual

Most Spirited

Angi McCann
Greg Bullitt

Angie McCann and Greg Bullitt took pride in their school and did not hesitate to show it at all school functions. Angie was elected cheerleader her sophomore and senior years. She was a member of the Pep Squad in her freshman and junior years. Greg enjoyed cheering with everyone at the pep rallies, although he somehow managed to get noticed more than anyone else. We are proud to know that BHS students are spirited enough to support their school in its many endeavors.

Most Athletic

Doddie Mundy
Lucas Strange

Buckeye High School was lucky to have two fine athletes in Doddie Mundy and Lucas Strange. Doddie enjoyed participating in basketball, softball, and track. She lettered in basketball and softball in her sophomore, junior, and senior years, and in track during her sophomore and junior years. During her sophomore year, she received Honorable Mention All-District in basketball. She was chosen First Team All-District in softball in her junior year. During her senior year, she was chosen First-Team All-District in basketball. Lucas was very involved in football, baseball, and track. During his junior year, he lettered in all three sports. He was chosen as a member of the Second Team All-District Offensive Team. He was Region Three Shotput Champion, and received third place in the shotput at the state track meet. During his senior year, he also lettered in all three sports. In football, he was chosen to the First Team All-District Offensive and Defensive Teams, All-Cenla Offense, Honorable Mention All-State Offense, and Honorable Mention Academic All-State.

Friendliest
Julie Porter
Kevin Alwell

Buckeye High School prides itself on a cheerful atmosphere and a friendly, caring administration, faculty, and student body. Julie Porter and Kevin Alwell both have great personalities. Voted friendliest in the graduating class of '88, they always had smiles on their faces. Julie had a way of noting little things which made our students feel really special. She always seemed to be in a marvelous mood. Kevin is a very concerned person. He was constantly talking to everyone he saw and making each person feel important. Both Julie and Kevin are really special people. It's nice to know that we have such friendly students at Buckeye High School.

Buckeye High seems to have a recurring disease around its campus each spring. Its name is "senioritis". It affects all shapes and sizes of seniors and makes them a little bit crazy. Shawndrea Arnold and Greg Bullitt were two perfect examples of the illness. They both indicated that the reason they were so witty was that they just made the best of any situation, good or bad. They really enjoyed joking around whenever possible, and they loved to make people laugh. If the crazy antics they performed were just the early signs of the disease, we dread seeing the illness at its worst!

Senior Class Favorites

Amy Ryan
Greg Bullitt

The Senior Class elected Amy Ryan and Greg Bullitt as their class favorites. Amy was a new face at our school. She first attended BHS in her junior year and as you can see, made a big impression on the students. She was very well-liked. She always had a smile on her face. Greg was a very popular face around the BHS campus. He had a very outgoing personality. Every time you saw Greg around school he had that great smile on his face.

Johnna Haynes and Glenn Belgard were elected by popular vote as Junior class favorites. Johnna had a friendly attitude toward everyone, which persuaded the Junior class to elect her as a favorite. Glenn was very quiet, but liked to be sociable with everyone. Together Johnna and Glenn were well deserving of their title as Junior class favorites.

Sophomore Class Favorites

Stacy Hartman

Joey Naquin

The Sophomore Class favorites were once again by popular demand, Stacy Hartman and Joey Naquin. Stacy was the type of person who was always busy. She was active in extracurricular activities and kept up her grades as well. Joey was the one who could make you laugh, even on a Monday. He always had that winning smile. The sophomores did an outstanding job in choosing their favorites.

The Freshmen Class elected Aleesha Norris and Rob McGee as their class favorites. Aleesha was very active in sports. She played basketball, softball, and ran track. Rod was one of those wild guys who could always make you giggle. These freshmen both had remarkable personalities. Anyone can see why they were chosen to represent their class.

Alicia Nugent, Ginger Hamilton, and Kathy Barron backed up Julie Wiggins as she sang at the Chorus' dinner theater.

The cheerleaders built enthusiasm by performing a skit at the beginning of many pep rallies.

LEAVING OUR TRACKS . . .

Gil McKee accepted the general business award from Coach McPhate on Awards' Day.

Mr. Foster was one of the teachers who "stole the show" when he modeled in the yearbook's fashion show.

There was plenty of action when the seniors played volleyball at the Senior Picnic.

At the Athletic Banquet, Coach Palermo, Athletic Director, presented Greg Bolton a trophy for being a four-sport letterman.

ACTIVITIES

Buckeye celebrated its 50th anniversary this year. Before Buckeye was built, high school students were bussed to Bolton High School. Buckeye was built in 1937. In 1988, we honored BHS's first graduating class, the class of 1938, by inviting those graduates to a special reception before the Homecoming game. Six out of the ten graduates attended and are pictured at the bottom right.

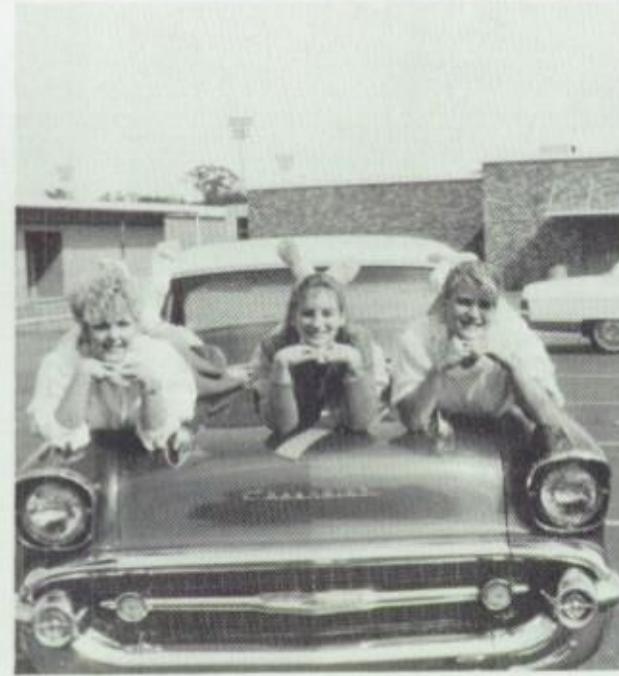

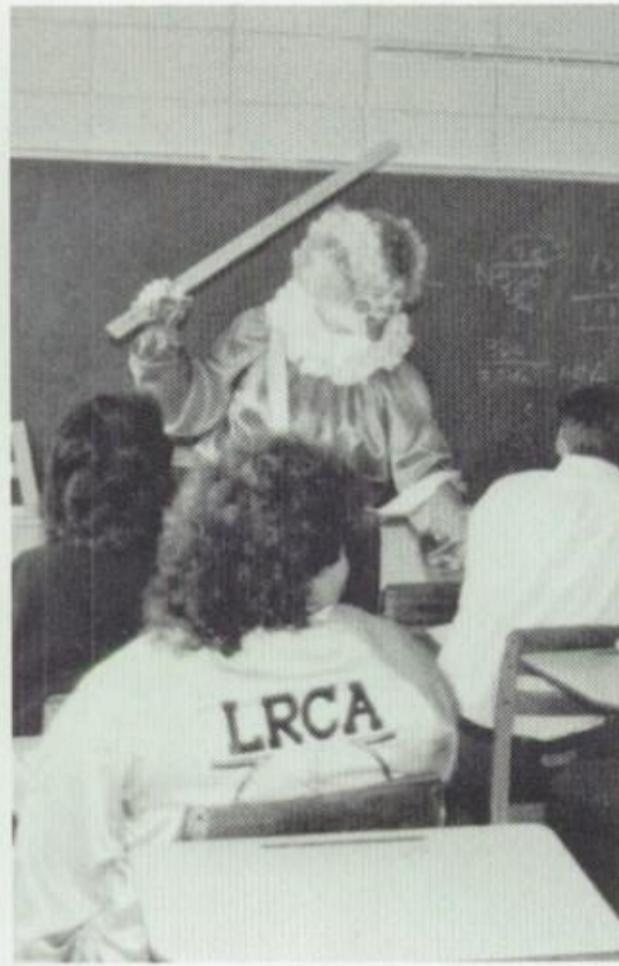

Homecoming week at Buckeye is always exciting, and this year was no exception. The cheerleaders made every day of the week a different dress day, and they were a blast! There was Mismatch Day, Twin Day, Nerd Day, Impression Day, and Fifties Day. There was a bonfire Thursday night. The band played, the cheerleaders did cheers, and there was free food. Friday was not just Fifties Day; it was the day we wrapped up the whole week. The seniors won the Spirit Chain and Homecoming Sign contests and spent the day getting out of class. Those things are as much a tradition as Homecoming itself. The football game was a bit different this year. We played Menard for the first time and lost, but Buckeye students have always enjoyed good competition. Charlotte Oates was Homecoming Queen. Other members of the Court were: Karen Glass, Lana Jenkins, Angi McCann, Kim Price Dryden, Raquel Delaney, and Jeanine Barker.

50 GOLDEN YEARS

HOMECOMING WEEK

Buckeye's first graduates were Ruth Noone Stewart, Janie O'Neal Cox, Cecil Bettevy, Ida Ryder Hicks, Lewis Clark, and Gladys Slay Richardson. Not in attendance were Maxine Aycock Southerland, Mary Borland, Cestmin Kubes, and James Price.

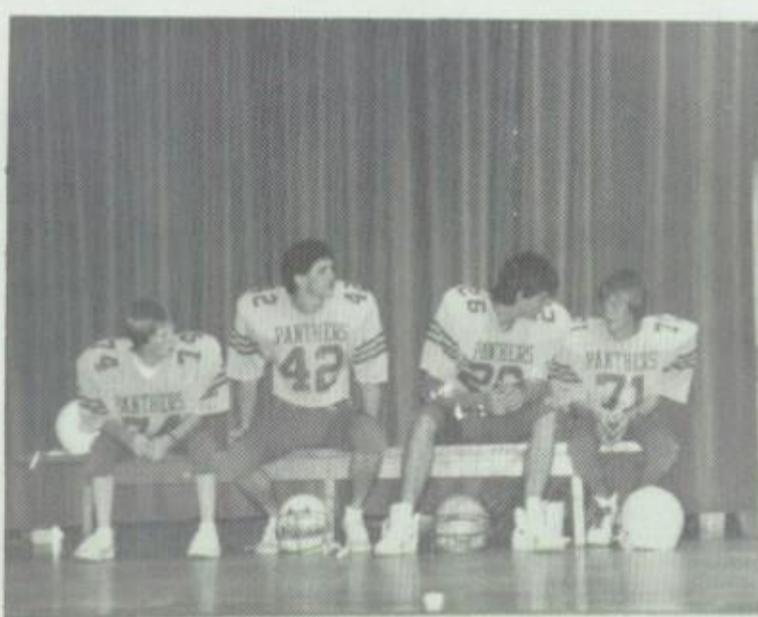

Every year our Music Department presents several concerts here at the school. This year, the Junior High and High School Bands, together with the Choir, performed a Christmas Concert. Later in the year, the Junior High and High School Bands put on a spring concert. Mrs. Brown's choir presented a wonderful dinner theater. Choir members performed solos, duets, and sang in groups. The theme of the dinner theater was "That's What Friends Are For."

The yearbook you are now reading cost about $10,000 to produce. Since the money from book sales and advertising did not cover all the costs, it was necessary for the yearbook staff to raise the rest. For the past two years, we have raised part of the money by holding a fashion show here at school. The models were students from BHS and the show was held during school. This year's fashion show was an excellent effort. Everyone worked hard and it was a great show. Stephanie McKee, yearbook editor, and Theron Jones, of Genesis, were the announcers. Fashions from Genesis, Sashay's, Klothes Closet, the Limited, and Diane's Formal Wear were featured.

Mr. Sampson's speech class put on another play this year and it was hilarious! "Hail, the Hunkering Hero," was about Clifford Shnorkel (Ed McNeely), a hillbilly who became a college football hero. Other characters were Maw Shnorkel (Sandy Cornwell), Paw Shnorkel (Byron Nugent), Coach O'Brother (Brad Bonin), Dr. Klunk (Jeana Jean), Myrt Blirt (Julie Porter), Lotus Shmorgus (Rita McRight), Fletcher Witz (Robin Barber), Rattenstall (Chad Daigre), the Radio Announcer (Chad Johnson), Football Players (Trent Dufour, Greg Bullitt, Jody O'Neal, Derek Lane, Chad Daigre, Robin Barber and Scott Null) and the Cheerleaders (Monica Deville, Donna Helverson, Kathy Barron, and Patti Godwin).

At the Athletic Banquet, all students who participated in sports at BHS gathered to recognize those who had excelled in athletics. Each coach presented awards to the star athletes in his or her sport. Athletic award recipients were:

All who participated in the 1988 Junior-Senior Prom had the time of their lives. That was expected considering the prom theme was "I've Had the Time of My Life." Cadillac Jack, of 93KQID, was disc jockey for the occasion. The music must have been good because Mr. Yates couldn't resist getting out on the dance floor. Mr. Waites was pretty happy, too, since nobody tried to get in wearing shorts!

Every year, in May, the seniors get to cut school and go on the Senior Picnic. This year, the seniors went to Stuart's Lake for their big bash. They played a lot of volleyball, pitting the girls against the boys and the seniors against the teachers. There was plenty of swimming and sunbathing. Some of the girls got thrown into the water by some of those wild and crazy guys. Everyone enjoyed the hot dogs that coach McPhate cooked for lunch. The class almost missed Mrs. Gunter who was accidentally left behind and had to drive herself to the lake.

On Awards Day, teachers gave awards to students based on grades, rally participation, and hard work. Academic award recipients were:

Cherish yesterday; dream tomorrow; live today. This was the motto of the Class of 1988, Buckeye's fiftieth graduating class. As they go out into the world to face new challenges and responsibilities, they should remember these words. Hopefully, their time at Buckeye prepared them for the real world.

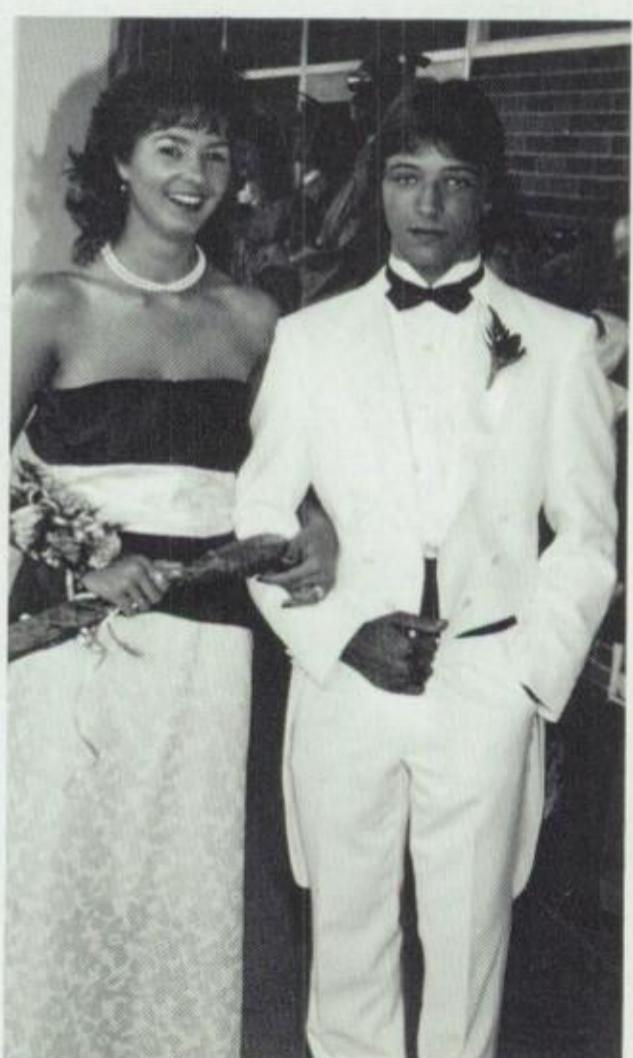

Each year the graduating class elects two juniors to be Honor Escorts at the ceremony. The 1988 Escorts were Julie Thompson and Scott Sasser.

At graduation this year, as in years past, we recognized those students who had exhibited academic excellence. Melissa Lary was Valedictorian. Andy Biggs was Salutatorian. Other Honor Graduates were Troy Bonin, Brad Foster, Stephanie McKee, Ronald Owens, Dana Price, Robert Ryder, and Lucas Strange. To be an Honor Graduate, these students had to follow a prescribed course of study including Algebra II, advanced math, physics or world history, and English IV, and had to maintain a grade point average of 3.0.

Many graduates received scholarships and special awards during commencement exercises. Robyn Smith, Financial Aid Advisor, awarded scholarships from Louisiana College to Andy Biggs, Brad Foster, Melissa Lary, Stephanie McKee, Scotty Miller, Pam Moore, and Kevin Sanson. Mr. Waites presented scholarships and awards to Andy Biggs, Troy Bonin, Robert Jameson, Melissa Lary, Angi McCann, Pam Moore, Ronald Owens, Dana Price, Robert Ryder, Lucas Strange, and Robert Wagers.

Mr. Douglas Jenkins, President of the School Board, presented diplomas to the 72 graduating seniors.

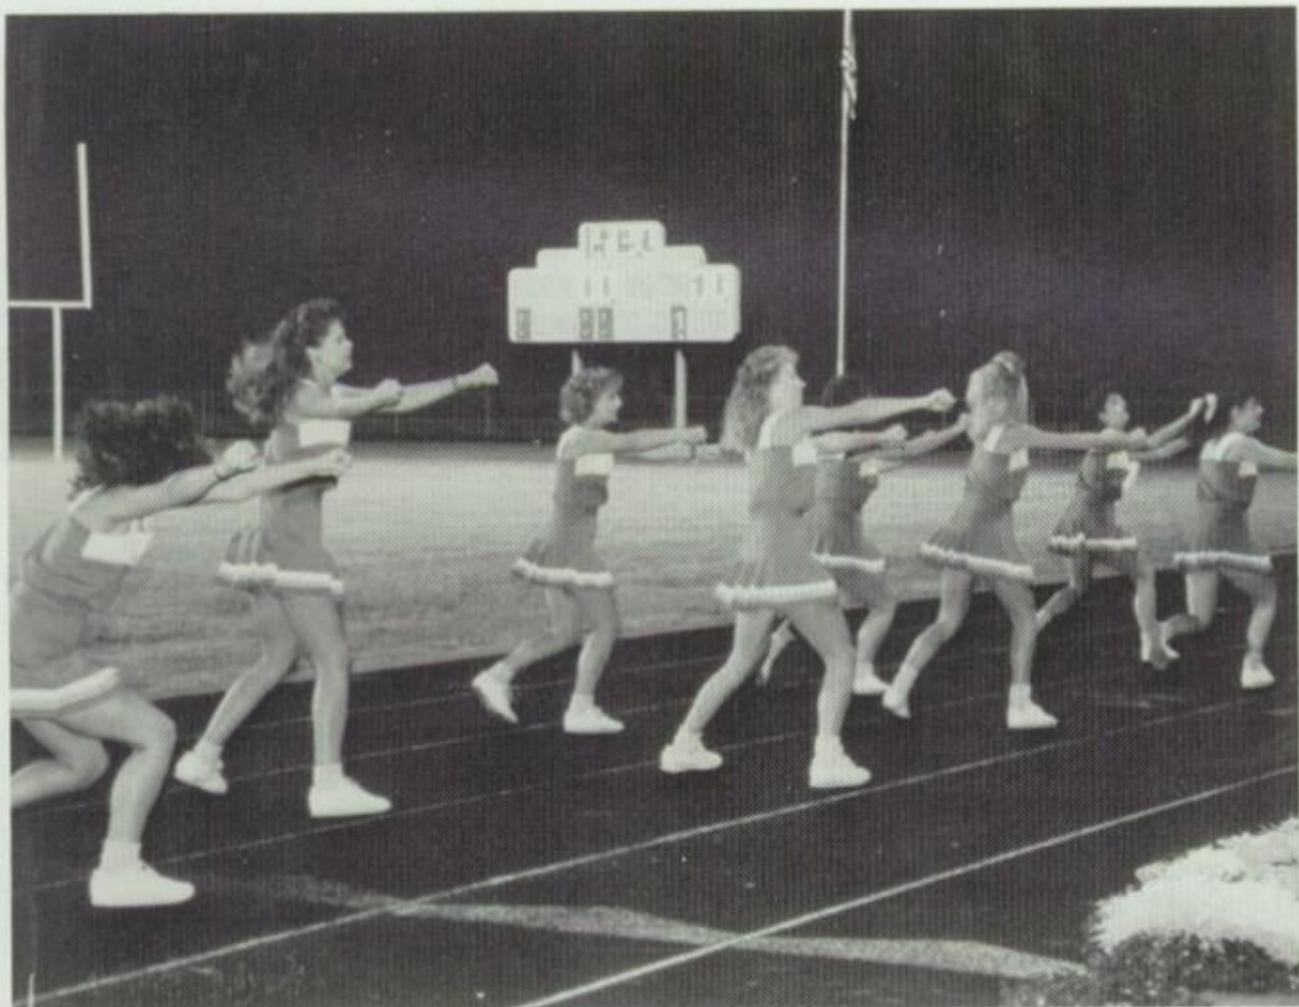

BHS's Band entertained the fans at halftime during home football games.

The Library Club constructed a float for the Homecoming Court to ride on in the parade.

LEAVING OUR TRACKS . . .

Leading the crowd in cheers for BHS Panthers was what the cheerleaders did best.

Rebecca Rush, Lori McDowell, and Karla Foster shared a testimony in song at an FCS meeting.

Clint Horan wondered what pizzas had to do with the Annual Staff.

Pep Squad meant fun and friends for Julie Thompson, Jodi McCann, Autumn Cole, Shonda Ryder, and Frances Decuir.

Stacy Hartman, Dana Aaron, and Alecia Nugent joined Mr. Kendrick to make a quartet at an FCS meeting.

ORGANIZATIONS

Those students with higher intellect at Buckeye High School were members of a very elite group called the Beta Club. They took more difficult class schedules, spent late nights studying, and maintained a 3.0 overall grade average. They were also required to have excellent classroom behavior. The advisor of the Beta Club was Mr. Lucas. The president was Lucas Strange. Near the end of the year, the club took a trip to Six Flags Over Texas to relieve the pressure on their brains!

There was a group of mad scientists running around BHS. Their fearless leader was Mr. Hathorn. Science Club president was Lucas Strange. To be a member of the Science Club, one must have been currently enrolled in either physical science, earth science, biology, chemistry, or physics or have already taken three sciences. members must have maintained a 2.0 GPA in all courses. Our Dr. Jekylls and Mr. Hydes had a few meetings of the minds when they participated in the ever popular pig roast and the tasty crawfish boil.

Buckeye High's Student Council had a successful 1987-88 school year. Pam Moore, President, felt that the past year brought many good things to the BHS campus. During January, the Student Council had a "slave auction" in which all Student Council officers, class representatives, and club presidents were auctioned. The auction raised a large sum of money to be used for purchasing a gift for the school. The Student Council also began a SADD Council this year. Each Students Against Driving Drunk member was given a Contract for Life which was signed by the member and his parents. This contract stated that neither teenager nor parent would drive after drinking. Coach Cole, the advisor, was a big help to the group.

The public speakers of BHS are often members of the Speech Club. The Speech Club is advised by the speech teacher, Mr. Sampson. BHS's version of "The New York Times" lets all Buckeye students know just what's going on. Pam Moore was editor of the "Panther on the Prowl". The staff raises money by selling ads to area merchants and by selling papers to the student body.

The Buckeye High School Library Club was sponsored by the school librarian, Mrs. Walls. These bookworms were required to be interested in or willing to work for the library. Members of the Library Club participated in the Pineville Christmas parade by helping construct a float for the Homecoming Court to ride on. They also participated in Homecoming by helping with the platform decorations. The main fundraisers for the members are dues and selling candy.

Officers for 1987-88 were: Darlene Sills-President, Jana Waites-Vice-President, Shondrea Fisher-Secretary, and Barbara Gilleo-Treasurer.

The Fellowship of Christian Students was one of the largest clubs at Buckeye High School. Many students participated in club meetings every other Friday. The club's advisors, Mr. Kendrick and Mr. Foster, and President, Julie Porter, were successful in getting a variety of interesting speakers. The club heard from area pastors and singing groups. Usually before the speaker began his message, the song leaders sang a message of their own. At Buckeye, the freedom to express Christian beliefs and share Christian fellowship was taken very seriously by FCS members.

Future Business Leaders of America is a club to provide opportunities for those who are interested in business as a career to be placed in business like situations. The club is not all work. Club members enjoy a fun-filled week of Secret Pals when each FBLA member draws another member's name and decorates that person's locker all week long. At the end of the week, there is a big party at which all of the secret pals are revealed. This week was just before the Christmas holidays.

The tests were scored and students received a rating based on their performance. Superior ratings qualified the students for State FBLA Rally. State Rally was held in Baton Rouge, LA, on the campus of Louisiana State University. The students who qualified for State Rally were Sheldon Williams in business math and Brad Foster in business calculations.

Members of the group also attended Large Ensemble Festival. At District Music Rally, BHS's Chorus members placed first. Eleven choral students attended State Music Rally in Baton Rouge. In May, the group performed using the theme "That's What Friends Are For" at a Dinner Theater. Mrs. Brown was the group's director.

Buckeye High's Annual Staff was made up of many hard-working individuals who were advised by Mrs. Horan. The head slave driver, I mean editor, Stephanie McKee, was a very dedicated person. Tonya Stevenson, assistant-editor, was the one who kept Stephanie sane. For those of you who don't realize it, working on the annual is a very tedious job. In order to be on the Annual Staff, the students are observed and very carefully considered by the sponsor and the principal. Raising money for the yearbook was very interesting. The members sold pizzas and presented the annual spring fashion show. Some of the members participated in the Graduate Sales Associates' Annual Staff Camp held during the summer at McNeese State University in order to learn different ideas and skills needed to produce a yearbook.

The Future Farmers of America was a very popular club on the BHS campus. Thanks to Mr. Kendrick, FFA advisor, the students were able to enjoy many different activities. The FFA President was Angi McCann. The FFA sold candy, sausage, magazines, and projects built in the ag shop. They also sponsored the ever-popular donkey basketball game and the FFA Rodeo. Some members participated in the FFA Judging Teams, the Parliamentary Law Team, or Public Speaking Competition. Other activities included trail rides, the annual FFA banquet, Spring Olympic Day, and the dinner trip to the Golden Corral.

Students who wanted to do good in the community joined the 4-H Club. Mr. Floyd was the brand new club advisor. Club president, Robert Jameson, led the members in many different fundraisers. They made money by holding rodeos, washing cars, and selling Tom Wat Products. Also, for those students who walked around BHS with a 'bottomless pit' for a stomach, the 4-H Club sold candy and baked goods. This money was used to help pay expenses for the trip to Walt Disney World.

BHS is greatly indebted to its 1987-88 crew of office workers. The office workers did many different things that were helpful to the faculty and administration at Buckeye. They each worked an hour per day in the main office. They answered the phone, collected absentee lists, worked the copy machine for teachers, and helped check out students. It would have been very hard for the school to operate as smoothly as it did without the much needed help of the office workers.

One of the most spirited organizations around BHS was the Pep Squad. Their sponsor was Mrs. Alwell. The captain of the squad was Jodi McCann. The Pep Squad of BHS cheered at all football games and at all home district basketball games. They also cheered during the annual bonfire and at the different pep rallies. This was the first year the Pep Squad marched in the Pineville Christmas Parade. Raising money was not too much of a problem for the Pep Squad. The major fundraiser was the keychain sale. They also sold candy. The members of the Pep Squad were required to show school spirit and have pride in their school.

One of the hardest working groups around the BHS campus was the Cheerleaders. Some of the requirements for being a cheerleader were having a 2.0 grade point average, and being willing to give up their afternoons to practice and their nights to perform. They tried out in front of the entire student body and then were elected by popular vote. Those elected devoted their time and skills to the athletes and students. Their loud voices gave more pep to the games. The squad attended all football games and all home district basketball games. At pep rallies, they encouraged school spirit with their cheers, stunts, mounts, dances, and last, but not least, skits. Their dedicated sponsor was Mrs. Alwell and their Captain was Raquel Delaney.

The BHS band attended Marching Contest, Rapides Parish Honor Band, District Solo and Ensemble Festival, and District Band Festival. The band also had a spring and fall concert. Theresa Wiley was Band Council president. Members of the Band Council were Jansen Marsh, Jody O'Neal, Julie Porter, and Julie Wagers. The band director was Mr. Stagg.

What a season! The games were all well played. The votes at the end of the season by the district gave witness to a good football season. There were many outstanding players on offense as well as on defense and when the ball was kicked, the special teams went into action. Good teamwork and standout players worked the season to a 5 and 5 record. It was evident that we had scholarship play. The opponents were strong at times, but the blue and gold got stronger. The games not in the win column could have been.

Do I have to go through this for another six years?

Did you say that I won a million dollars?

Our best picture subjects are the sixth graders, because they are always willing to pose for a picture.

Please, no pictures today! I have a headache.

Do you really think I like being in this room?

Take a moment to look at Mrs. Reed teaching her sixth grade English class.

LEAVING OUR TRACKS . . .

EDITOR'S NOTE

As editor of this yearbook, I hope, we, the annual staff, have captured some special memories of this year in your high school career. Many days and much midnight oil made this yearbook possible. Many thanks from the annual staff and myself go to several different people. Thanks to Mrs. Horan for the sixth hours and after school hours she spent advising us. Thanks to the administration and staff for the support they gave us throughout the '87-'88 year. Personally, I would like to thank Tonya Stevenson, assistant editor, and Emily Hammons for all their hard work and for keeping me sane this year. And last, but not least, I thank my mom for all her hard work in advising and helping me make decisions. For all that she has done for me, I would like to say — I love you!

ALMA MATER

There's a place within my heart,

From which never shall depart,
A love which ne'er shall die
For the dear old Buckeye High.

Rally 'round the Blue, the Gold
Like the Panthers brave and bold,
And forward, onward, upward press
For the dear old
BHS.
